PURPOSE

Meeting rooms are provided for library sponsored programs/meetings as well as meetings/activities facilitated by the City of Welland (and their Boards and Commissions) and partner organizations. After these needs are met, the meeting room facilities may be reserved by groups and organizations in accordance with this policy as established by the Library Board.

The library makes every effort to apply the following rules and regulations in a fair and consistent manner to ensure the safety, security, and dignity of both the public and staff.

AUTHORITY

The Public Libraries Act (R.S.O 1990, c. P.44) authorizes public library boards to regulate all matters connected with the management of the library and library property. The Act also authorizes the library Board to impose fees for the use of parts of a building that are otherwise not in use for library purposes.

The Chief Executive Officer or designate(s) are responsible for ensuring that this policy is implemented and enforced.

RULES OF CONDUCT

1. Use of the meeting room by any group or organization does not constitute an endorsement by the Library Board of the group's policies or beliefs. The Library will not knowingly permit any individual or groups to use its facilities in contravention of the Criminal Code of Canada.
2. The library provides equitable access to its meeting spaces in a welcoming and supportive environment that is free from discrimination/harassment as outlined in the Ontario Human Rights Code. The library supports intellectual freedom and universal access to a broad and diverse range of information, opinions, ideas, and perspectives.
3. Disruptive or intrusive behaviour is not permitted and includes (but is not limited to) violence, abuse, discriminatory or harassing conduct and language.
4. The meeting rooms cannot be rented for partisan or discriminatory events, private social functions, gaming or lotteries and private business activities such as sales, promotions, or the distribution of marketing materials for specific brands/products.
5. The meeting rooms cannot be rented on a recurrent basis for the establishment of regular meetings or activities. Activities presented in partnership with the Welland Public Library may be exempted at the discretion of Library Management. Each rental application will be considered on an individual basis.
